

Uranium and Radiation on the Navajo Nation

Resource List

Agencies to Contact with Questions

Topic	Program and Agency	Telephone Number
Mines and Structures
Abandoned mines reclamation	Navajo Abandoned Mine Lands
	Window Rock Office	(928) 871-6982
	Shiprock Office	(505) 368-1220
	Tuba City Office	(928) 283-3188
5 Year Plan, US EPA abandoned uranium mine cleanup activities	US Environmental Protection Agency	(800) 231-3075
Contaminated structures	Navajo Superfund Program, Navajo Nation EPA	(800) 314-1846
Radon in your home Radon test kits	Radon Program, Navajo Nation EPA	(928) 871-6790
Water
Water from unregulated sources; locations of unregulated sources	Public Water Systems, Navajo Nation EPA	(928) 871-7755
Safe water hauling practices	Public Water Systems, Navajo Nation EPA	(928) 871-7755
Water from a regulated watering point or piped water in your home	Navajo Tribal Utility Authority	(800) 528-5011
Livestock water, windmills, earthen dams	Navajo Department of Water Resources	(928) 729-4003
Health
Uranium medical screening and monitoring program	Community Uranium Exposure – Journey to Healing Navajo Area Indian Health Service	(505) 368-6311
Radiation exposure compensation claim; downwinders	Radiation Exposure and Screening and Education Program (RESEP) / Radiation Exposure Compensation Act (RECA), US Indian Health Service	(505) 368-7032 (505) 368-7054
Navajo Birth Cohort Study	University of New Mexico Agency for Toxic Substances and Disease Registry	(877) 545-6775 (770) 488-1347