

Administrative Record Peck Iron and Metals Site

“A Feasibility Study Regarding the Development of a Park, Recreation Area, or Wildlife Area on Paradise Creek, Portsmouth, Virginia” prepared for Governor and General Assembly of Virginia,

Benthic Biological Monitoring Program of the Elizabeth River Watershed (2001) With a Study of Paradise Creek, D. M. Dauer.

Communication from Mike Buchman, NOAA Coastal Protection and Restoration Division, National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration, A Trustee for Natural Resources including Paradise Creek, September 18, 2003

Ecological Risk Assessment Paradise Creek Portsmouth, Virginia. Department of the Navy, Atlantic Division, Naval Facilities Engineering Command, Norfolk, Virginia. December 2001.

Memo from Bruce Pluta, Biological Technical Working Group; Development of PCB and Lead Sediment Clean Up Levels, Draft Action Memorandum; Peck Iron and Metal Site; Portsmouth, Virginia, September 13, 2006.

State Water Control Board, 9 VAC 25-260 Virginia Water Quality Standards. Statutory Authority: § 62.1-44.15 3a of the Code of Virginia.

Response to a Request for Information issued by the EPA pursuant to Section 104(e) of CERCLA, May 10, 2006. Includes seventeen (17) Compact Disks (CDs) containing sample analytical data.

Site Characterization Addendum, Peck Recycling / Pull-A-Part, Inc., Draper Aden Associates. November 7, 2003.

Site Characterization & Self-Implementing PCB Cleanup Plan, Draper Aden Associates, May 11, 2004.

Site Characterization & Self-Implementing PCB Cleanup Plan, Draper Aden Associates, May 11, 2004, Revised July 12, 2004.

Site Characterization & Self-Implementing PCB Cleanup Plan, Draper Aden Associates, May 11, 2004, Final Revision October 22, 2004.