- Waters of the United States (WOTUS) rulemaking information can be found on EPA's Navigable Waters Protection Rule page: <https://www.epa.gov/nwpr>. Information presented during the RRT meeting largely came from instructional webinars located here. There are also numerous fact sheets and other information located here.
- DOI/USFWS Wildlife Response Videos can be found here. Reminder - "The Oiled Wildlife Training video series provides detailed awareness of the activities Department of Interior (DOI) responders, or any other spill responder, might take in response to an oil spill. The video series includes: methods to safely execute search, observe and capture for oiled or impacted wildlife; wildlife responder roles and responsibilities; and best practices and advice on how to transport, stabilize and document wildlife. This video resource features training, commentary and perspectives from leading experts in the field of oiled wildlife from across the country. These subject areas are meant to complement and support the curriculum of the CSP3129 DOI Inland Oil Spill course."
